To,

Shri N.D. Ram,
General Secretary,
SEWA BSNL, CHQ New Delhi

Subject: Appeal to SEWA BSNL to extend active support to the call given by AIGETOA-Reg.

Reference: GS/AIGETOA/2021/80 dated 18.06.2021 of GS AIGETOA

Respected Sir,

As discussed with you, my association has decided to not wait further and protest against the continuous delay and denial the basic rights of executives and failure of the management to revive the organisation despite of passage of one and half year of BSNL Revival Package. So, AIGETOA has served the notice for organizational protest through referred letter.

You will acknowledge that dissatisfaction level of the executives has reached to its peak and executives are feeling dejected due to continuous neglect of their very basic rights & issues pertaining to serving benefits, retirement benefits and logjams in career progression, despite repeated meetings and discussions held by the representative association with the management and assurance received for settlement of the issues time and again. At the same, sustainability of the organisation is also becoming questionable due to complete failure of the management to revive the company despite getting a good opportunity in the form of revival package and the exodus of around 80,000 employees through VRS, which reduced the salary cost to about half of the amount. In spite of it, timely salary and medical facilities are not guaranteed to employees even in the extreme Pandemic.

In the light of above facts, I sincerely appeal you to extend active support to the call of AIGETOA in the larger interest of executives and organisation and kindly request SEWA BSNL members to actively participate and extend the hand of support in the success of the program. We are looking forward for a kind and positive assurance from your end in this regard.

With Warm Regards

[MD. WASI AHMAD]
General Secretary
