Subject: Posting of AGM (HR) as AGM (Vig), Kerala to protect long stay transfer of individual -Reg.

Reference: No: AIGETOA/KRL/CGM/19-22/99 dated 22.03.2022 of CS-AIGETOA, Kerala

Respected Sir,

We would like to draw your kind attention towards one of the grave concern raised by our Circle Secretary, Kerala vide above referred letter to the CGM Kerala and DGM Vigilance Kerala regarding violation of policy matter and undermining independency of Kerala Vigilance Unit though mysterious posting of AGM(Vigilance) vide order number No. KRLCO-11/20(4)/11/2020-HR & ADMIN dated at TVM 09/03/2022 (attached) of an officer, who is in the longest stay list of 21 Years Stay at Trivandrum as issued vide letter No: KRLCO-11/20(25)/1/2021-HR AND ADMIN Dated at TVM the 21/02/2022 (attached) by the same officer in question.

We treat it as misuse of the official position by administration of Kerala Circle to extend favour to particular officer through vested administrative power. Although, the association is not in favour of raising individual matter but this case is important considering the fact that the matter belongs to posting of the officer in Vigilance Unit, which itself is the investigating unit for any discrepancies and erroneous actions. As a Custodian Head of the Unit, we felt it important to bring the matter under your kind information to get an unprejudiced decision.

Therefore, we request kind intervention of your good office to examine the matter on merit and extend needful to ensure faith and pride of common employees in the unit in the best interest of the organisation.

With Regards,

Sd/--
